

Richard Twiss

A lecture to consider a "Seven-Generation continuum" as a way to inform our decisions to create caring and respectful communities that will positively, not negatively, impact future generations in an increasingly diverse world.

Time: 11:30- 1:00 Date: May 10th & 11th

Contact Ricky Sullivan
509-954-6966

Part 1 Monday: Building 17 SUB Lounges

Part 2 Tuesday: Building 24 RM 110

Contact e-mail:
actvp@spokanefalls.edu

He has spoken at; Oregon State Department of Forestry, Association for Christians in Student Development Conference, HC2Mhill, Anchorage, AK; Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; City of Portland, Mayors Office Staff; City of Buffalo, New York, Mayors Conference on Reconciliation; Department of Immigration and Naturalization Services (INS), University of California-San Luis Obispo, Pepperdine, United Tribes Tribal College, Whitworth College, Penn State University, Reed College, Seattle Pacific University, Lewis and Clark College, etc.

Mr. Twiss has organized and led teams of Native Americans who are traditional powwow dancers, singers and speakers to other countries to share the beauty of native cultural expressions and history and a powerful message of reconciliation and healing. Countries visited include Switzerland, Germany, France, Rwanda, Bolivia, Mongolia, Panama, Israel, New Zealand, Australia, Venezuela, Mexico, Hong Kong and Philippines.

